

Please do not weaken the no call list. I pay for my phone service, not telemarketers, and I do not want them calling me. It is so nice to be able to eat supper without having to get up three times to answer their unwanted calls!